'TROUBLE'S TROUBLES' PANACEA FOR PILIKIA AT BIJOU THEATER TONIGHT

George Ade's Comedy-Satire
First Offering of Ingersol
Musical Artists

George Ade wrote "Trouble's Troubles" a number of years ago. It is a musical comedy satire and a majority of mainland theater-goers have been afforded an opportunity of enjoying the laughs which Ade knows so well how to scatter at random through his productions. Now comes Honolulu's opportunity to drive away trouble by spending an evening at the Bijou theater, where the Ingersol Musical Comedy Company tonight will present "Trouble's Trouble" as the opening bill of their limited local season. This Ade play was a big success on Broadway and throughout the country. All that is necessary is for the players to be classy, and Mr. Ingersol and "Bob" McGreer guarantee the worth of their artists.

John Trouble, he is the hero of the plot, is a retired farmer, who visits the studio of Tom Hanna to arrange with the artist to paint a portrait of the farmer's daughter. There's where Trouble's trouble begins, as there is where he makes the acquaintance of an artist's model. A flirtation ensues and the comedy results from Trouble's efforts to "square" himself with his wife, a modern lady, who, to employ the vernacular of the country grocery store, "wears the pants" in the Trouble family. Frank Vack, an old favorite with the Bijou clientele, appears in the role of John Trouble, while Pearl Jardiniere is Mrs. Trouble.

The Ingersol company boasts a large chorus of pretty and fascinating soubrettes, besides a large number of stars. The company has worked together for a long time and should give some exceptionally good productions during their local season. Honolulu is ripe for high-class musical comedy and Ingersol claims to have it. Tonight's performance will be the premier of the organization and the Bijou will be packed with the jury of discerning theater-goers and play-fans.

An enjoyable entertainment was given at the Outrigger Club Friday night under the auspices of the McKinley High School Athletic Association, the proceeds of the affair to be used for outfitting the school's athletic teams. Refreshments were served and a Hawaiian orchestra furnished music for dancing.

MURRAY-FORMAN GOOD ALLIANCE

"Sweet Kitty Bellairs," the Lasky Belasco comedy offering now being presented at the Liberty theater, gives to charming Mae Murray even a better opportunity to display her talent and beauty than her previous appearance in "To Have and to Hold." This is the same Mae Murray who a few short years ago set Broadway on edge by her clever dancing, the girl who, literally, danced herself to fame, which fame she has greatly enhanced as a star of the silent drama. As a matter of fact, Mae Murray is now confirmed to the newer art and it is questionable if ever she will return to the footlights, for which the followers of the picture drama should feel thankful.

With the present Liberty program and the sweet memory of Mae Murray's former appearance, patrons of that house will be on the lookout for her further offerings and she will be taken into the "inner circles" of Paramount favorites. The announcement is made that there are several other features with this artist in the stellar role now en route to the Liberty screen.

The supporting cast in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs" is an exceptionally strong one, including Tom Forman, Joseph King, James Neill, Belle Bennett, Lucille Young, Lucille La Verney, H. B. Carpenter and Bob Gray. Tom Forman plays opposite the featured star and his previous work in some dozen features, including the "Chimie Fadden" series and the male lead in "The Wild Goose Chase," places him well to the lead in the list of Liberty male favorites.

Pearl White in "The Iron Claw" has done equally as good work as in her previous serial offerings. This thriller is rapidly nearing the end, with the excitement more intense with each succeeding chapter.

About 300 couples were present at the first "ladies' night" ball of the Supreme Lodge of Phoenix Saturday night. Refreshments were served and music continued until midnight.
